mandate for the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals' decision in Bourne Valley Court Trust v. Wells Fargo Bank, NA, 832 F.3d 1154 (9th Cir. 2016). (ECF No. 50.) This Court, which issued stays in a number of similar cases on the same grounds, granted the motion and stayed the case. (ECF No. 51.)

The stay order provides for the stay to be in effect until the mandate is issued in Bourne Valley. The Ninth Circuit issued the mandate on December 14, 2016, after denying a petition for en banc hearing and a petition for a stay pending the resolution of a petition for writ of certiorari. Bourne Valley Court Trust v. Wells Fargo Bank, NA, No. 15-15233 (9th Cir. Dec. 14, 2016) (mandate). Furthermore, the appellee specifically cited one of this Court's stay orders in its request for a stay of the Ninth Circuit's mandate. arguing that delaying the mandate would promote efficiency. Nevertheless, the Ninth Circuit denied appellee's motion. Thus, Bourne Valley's holding is binding precedent unless and until it is reversed, though such finality may not occur for months. Under these circumstances, the Court finds that a continued stay would not promote fairness or "secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination" of this case as mandated under Fed. R. Civ. P. 1.

It is therefore ordered that the temporary stay is lifted.

DATED THIS 19th day of January 2017.
